STIPULATION AND AGREED ORDER

1. On February 21, 2019, the Court entered an Order pursuant to which Plaintiffs were to file their Motion for Class Certification on or before May 17, 2019, and Defendants were to file their Response to Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification on or before September 30, 2019;

2. Since that date, the Parties have continued to engaged in class and merits discovery and have conducted a number of depositions that relate to, inter alia, issues concerning class certification. Despite the Parties' best efforts, there are a number of additional depositions that Plaintiffs desire to complete prior to filing their Motion for Class Certification.

3. The Parties have thus agreed, subject to the Court's approval, to strike the current deadlines for briefing on Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification until after the current round of requested depositions, which they anticipate will be completed by June 21, 2019. Following the completion of those depositions, the Parties propose to submit an amended schedule for class certification proceedings.

4. In accordance with the Parties' agreement, it is therefore ORDERED that:

- a. The current deadline of May 17, 2019, for Plaintiffs to file their Motion for Class Certification is STRICKEN;

- b. The current deadline of September 30, 2019, for Defendants to file their Response to Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification is STRICKEN; and
- c. The Parties shall submit a revised proposed schedule for class certification proceedings once they have completed the current round of requested depositions, which they anticipate will be completed by June 21, 2019.
- d. The status hearing on October 8, 2019, at 1:00 p.m. shall remain in place, subject to a request by the Parties to reschedule it.

SO ORDERED this ___ day of May 2019.
